Articles of Association of
Double A (1991) Public Company Limited
Chapter 5
Shareholder Meeting

- Article 29. The Board of Directors shall call a shareholder meeting which is an annual ordinary general meeting of shareholders within four months of the last day of the fiscal year of the Company. Other shareholder meetings shall be called extraordinary general meetings. The Board of Directors may call an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders any time the Board considers it expedient to do so.
- Article 30. Shareholders holding shares amounting to not less than one-fifth of the total number of shares sold or shareholders numbering not less than twenty-five persons holding shares amounting to not less than one-tenth of the total number of shares sold may submit their names in a request directing the Board of Directors to call an extraordinary general meeting at any time, but the reasons for calling such meeting shall be clearly stated in such request. The Board of Directors shall proceed to call a shareholder meeting to be held within one month of the date of receipt of such request from the said shareholders.
- Article 31. In calling a shareholder meeting, the Board of Directors shall prepare a written notice calling the meeting that states the place, date, time, agenda of the meeting and the matters to be proposed to the meeting with reasonable detail by indicating clearly whether it is the matter proposed for information, for approval or for consideration, as the case may be, including the opinions of the Board of Directors in the said matter, and the said notice shall be delivered to the shareholders and the Registrar for their information at least seven days prior to the date of the meeting. The notice calling for the meeting shall also be published in newspaper at least three days prior to the date of the meeting.
- The place of the meeting referred to in the first paragraph shall be in the province in which the head office or branch office of the Company is located or in a province nearby the head office or branch office of the Company or as per the resolution of the meeting of the Board of Directors stipulating the place of the meeting as it deems suitable.

Article 32. Unless otherwise stipulated by the laws in order to constitute a quorum, there shall be shareholders and proxies (if any) attending at a shareholder meeting amounting to not less than twenty-five persons or not less than one half of the total number of shareholders and in either case such shareholders shall hold shares amounting to not less than one-third of the total number of shares sold of the Company.

At any shareholder meeting, if one hour has passed since the time specified for the meeting and the number of shareholders attending the meeting is still inadequate for a specified quorum, and if such shareholder meeting was called as a result of a request by the shareholders, such meeting shall be cancelled. If such meeting was not called as a result of a request by the shareholders, the meeting shall be called once again and the notice calling such meeting shall be delivered to shareholders not less than seven days prior to the date of the meeting. In the subsequent meeting a quorum is not required.

Article 33. Unless otherwise stipulated by the Articles of Association or the laws the decision or resolution of the shareholder meeting shall require the majority vote of the shareholders who attend the meeting and cast their votes.

In voting, one shares equals to one vote. Any shareholder who has special interest in any matter to be resolved by the meeting shall not be entitled to vote for such matter except for the vote to elect the director.

In case of a tie vote, the chairman of the meeting shall have a casting vote.

Article 34. The business to be conducted in an annual ordinary general meeting of shareholders are as follows:

(1) To consider an annual report of the Board of Directors with respect to the performance made during the past one year and comments or further actions.

(2) To consider approval of the balance sheet and the statement of profit and loss.

(3) To consider approval on appropriation of profit.

(4) To consider appointment of a director who shall replace the director retiring by rotation.

(5) To consider selection and determination of remuneration of an auditor.

(6) To discuss and consider other businesses.

- Article 35. The chairman of the Board shall be the chairman of shareholder meetings. If the chairman of the Board is not present at a meeting or cannot perform his duty, and if there is a vice-chairman, the vice-chairman present at the meeting shall be the chairman of the meeting. If there is no vice-chairman or there is a vice-chairman who cannot perform his duty, the shareholders present at the meeting shall elect one shareholder to be the chairman of the meeting.
- Article 36. The chairman of the shareholder meeting has the duty to conduct the meeting in compliance with the Articles of Association of the Company relating to meetings and to follow the sequence of the agenda specified in the notice calling for the meeting, provided that the meeting may pass a resolution allowing a change in the sequence of the agenda with a vote of not less than two-third of the number of the shareholders present at the meeting.
- Article 37. A shareholder may appoint any other person to attend the meeting and vote on his or her behalf. An instrument appointing the proxy shall be submitted to the chairman of the Board or a person assigned by the chairman of the Board at the place of the meeting before such proxy attend the meeting. The instrument appointing the proxy shall be made in a form prescribed by the Registrar.
